That's a wrap!

Several scenes in the film "Wine Bar of the Mind" were recorded last week at the scenic hilltop Unity Church of Wimberley. This scene involved many local extras as homeless people, and several of the film's stars. Director Rodger Marion (Stock Movie Company) of Wimberley, top row 3rd from left, said the film is about three middle-aged women talking about past loves. Each woman's story has elements of romance and victory. Marion said he hopes to enter the film in the Sun Dance Film Festival. The cast includes local actors Paloma Bermudez (Lottie), Carla Daws (Lucinda), John Daws (Louie), Melinda Ellisor (Helena), and Gina McClure (Mariah).
